

Cllr David Blood asks "Where was our MP?"

David Cameron with Cllr David Blood

Cllr David Blood is infuriated that once again Dudley residents have been let down by Gordon Brown and his Government following a miserly 1% real increase in the 2008/9 Rate Support Grant; the money the Government provides for key local services at the same time removing several million pounds of specific funding to Dudley.

Voters will remember that last year Dudley received considerably less support than nearby Labour controlled Sandwell."

Support for flood victims
"It's too little, too late"
says Cllr David Blood

With ever increasing costs of Children's services, including Education, Caring and Fostering, along with the escalating and necessary cost of caring for our elderly residents, managing next year's budget will be challenging.

David along with his colleagues Peter Miller and Patrick Harley are also disappointed that only £21,000 has been received from the Government to support over 100 families throughout Dudley whose lives were devastated by the summer floods. "It's too little, too late" says David.

David says "It is difficult to understand why our local MP did not speak up for his constituents and Dudley.

Conservative Councillors welcome the proposed improvements to Kingswinford Library.

With a building and refurbishment programme giving residents a larger facility, longer opening hours and the addition of a parking area, improvements that residents have been asking for over many years.

Following years of Labour inaction, your Conservative Council is making a difference in Kingswinford!

Your Conservative Team for Kingswinford South

Cllr David Blood
01384 832 166

Cllr Patrick Harley
01384 270 380

Cllr Peter Miller
01384 831 118

Chris D. Kelly selected to stand for the Conservatives in Dudley South

Chris D. Kelly
Putting Dudley South First www.tellchris.com

Chris D. Kelly is 29 and was educated at Wolverhampton Grammar School, Oxford Brookes University – where he gained a degree in politics and modern history – and Imperial College, London where he gained a Master of Business Administration.

Chris joined the family firm, Keltruck, in 1999 as a sales and marketing executive. In 2002 he became marketing manager and was appointed non-executive director in June 2004 and Marketing Director in January 2006.

Chris's interests include current affairs and politics hence his desire to be elected to represent Dudley South in Parliament. He has been an active political campaigner since he was 18 years old and in his spare time enjoys skiing, squash, swimming and travelling.

Chris has set-up a website at www.tellChris.com

Tell us what you think or let us know if you can help

Your comments:

I would like to help my local Conservatives:

Name:

Address:

Tel:

Email:

Return to:-
Dudley Conservatives, 1st Floor, 26 High Street, Halesowen B63 3BB